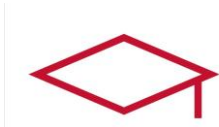

Image Rights and Usage - Consent to Photography, Videography and Recording:

Participation in any EAO activities whether paid or free of charge, constitutes an agreement to the following terms and conditions regarding the use of image rights. By attending the event, participants consent to the capture and use of their images by EAO.

Participants grant permission for their photographs and videos to be taken. This consent applies to all types of EAO activities and events, whether they are membership subscription, workshops, congress, courses, conferences, seminars, social gatherings, or any other type of gathering organized by EAO or within any joint-event supported by EAO.

Use of Images:

The images captured during these events may be used by EAO for communication and/or promotional and marketing purposes. This includes, but is not limited to, use in brochures, newsletters, websites, social media platforms, advertisements, and other digital or printed materials.

Participants acknowledge that their images may be combined with other images, texts, graphics, and audio recordings and that these images may be altered or edited for the purpose of the communication and/or promotion of EAO's activities and programs.

The rights granted by participants are worldwide with no limits in time. This means that EAO may use the images in any country and at any time in the future without needing to seek additional permission from the participants.
